N.B. TEACHERS: Secure preparation, preferably memorized, is required. Performance protocol is to be guided by the teacher in reference to the following: appropriate stage dress, students are expected to announce the selection to be played, bow to the audience after the performance, and acknowledge the accompanist when appropriate.

Young children attending as guests of the performers must be able to sit quietly for the duration of the recital.

Please ensure that your student has a copy of this form and understands the above.
